

Minutes of meeting of April 16, distribution of portion of: At Dr. Houghton's request, Dr. Nugent, Acting Chairman, indicated that that part of the minutes of the meeting of April 16, 1956, beginning with the last four paragraphs on page 4 and continuing through page 8, would be distributed by the secretary to members of the Faculty.

Catalogue changes and additions, approval of: The following catalogue material, approved at the April 25 and May 2 meetings of the Advisory Council, was accepted:

Art 240a,b-E, Crafts (2-2), change to Art 240-E, Crafts (3); Agronomy 205, Weed Control, page 247, change course hours from 3 hours of lecture to 2 hours of lecture and 3 hours of laboratory; Poultry Science 102, change scheduling from first semester 1955-56 to first semester 1956-57; Geology - 238, Prospect Valuation and Development (2) II; 333, Precious and Rare Metal Deposits (3) II; 301, Ore Deposits of the Rocky Mountains, delete; 303, Advanced Mineral Deposits (3), change 3R to 2R, 3L, add field trip and fee of $4; 202, Stratigraphic Geology (3), change I to I,II; 208, Geology of North America (2), change I to II; 227, Principles of Metamorphism (3), change II to I; 228 (not in present catalogue), change II to I; 308, Advanced Structural Geology (3), change II to I; 310, Advanced Igneous Petrology (3), change I to II; Anthropology - 200a,b, Introduction to Far Eastern Civilizations (3-3); 204a,b, Studies in Chinese Culture (3-3); 206a, b, The Contemporary Far East (2-2); 209, Contemporary Islam (3); 211, Contemporary Southeast Asia (3) II; Political Science 229s, Current European Public Problems and Trends (8); Mathematics 202a,b, Advanced Calculus, delete "1955-56" from description; Zoology 148E, Parasitology in the Clinical Laboratory (3) I.

Agricultural Extension Service representative, proposal re: A Resolution proposing a change in the constitution to give Agricultural Extension Service one representative in the Senate and the College of Agriculture Teaching and Research staff one representative was referred to the College of Agriculture faculty. It will be considered by the Senate in the fall.

Three-term or quarter plans, investigation of: The Senate approved the appointment of a committee, including one representative from each of the colleges, to investigate the possibilities of operating the University on either a three-term plan or the conventional four-quarter plan.

Substitutions and Waivers of degree requirements, recommendation re: Recommendations from the Committee of Eleven effecting the processing of substitutions and waivers of degree requirements to provide uniformity among the various colleges were placed on the agenda of the October meeting of the Senate.

_____
C. Laner Leshner, Secretary.