Grant, Green, Grossman, Harris, Hull, Johnson, Keating, Lane, Layton, Manes, Mason, Mathews, Mautner, McConnell, McCoy, McMillan, Mees, Myers, Odishaw, ^{OLSON}Rhodes, Roby, Rosaldo, Rosenberg, Shields, Skinner, Sorensen, Steelink, Stubblefield, Svob, Thompson, Varney, Ware, Windsor, Yoshino, Younggren, and Zwolinski. Student representatives attending were John McKinney and Paula VanNess. Dr. Frank LaBan was present as Parliamentarian. Mr. David Butler was present as Assistant Secretary.

SENATE MEMBERS ABSENT: Ares, Bannister, Bateman, Battan, Bleibtreu, H. Butler, Dresher, Edwards, Evans, S. Fahey, W. Fahey, Gaines, Joyner, Kassander, Krueger, Massengale, Muramoto, ~~Olson~~, Paulsen, Schaefer, Trafton, Vignery, and Weaver. Student representative absent was Gene Simko.

CATALOG MATERIAL: Catalog material as previously distributed to members by means of "Curriculum" bulletin Volume 4, No. 4 (11/9/72) was approved with two exceptions. It was pointed out by Dean Manes that the proposed new course Optical Sciences 234, Management of Optics Research and Development, was not under consideration, the proposal for the course having been withdrawn and the Senate voted to table that proposed offering. At Dr. Gegenheimer's request the proposed new course Business Administration 300a-300b, Report Writing, was referred back to the Coordinator of Curricular Matters. Dr. Gegenheimer explained that the faculty of the Department of English felt that the subject matter of this course might better be presented as an English Department offering rather than as a Business Administration offering.

PROPOSED FACULTY CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS, CONTINUED CONSIDERATION OF: The Senate moved into a committee of the whole and continued consideration line-by-line of the proposed new Faculty Constitution and proposed new Faculty Bylaws. Such consideration will continue at subsequent meetings of the Faculty Senate.

David L. Windsor, Secretary
