EXCERPT FROM UNIVERSITY REPORT OF PROFESSOR HOWARD J. HALL

(From Annual Report of Board of Regents, University of Arizona, 1894)

The care of the general library of the University has devolved upon me throughout the year. The number of books has been doubled, and the efficiency of the Library has been very greatly increased by the securing of suitable cases for the books, and by the better care of papers and periodicals than was heretofore possible. The arrival of our annual purchase of books will fill all shelf space now available.

In addition to my other duties, I have since October 1, acted as Secretary of the University Faculty.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

HOWARD J. HALL
Professor of English

Tucson, Arizona, December 19, 1894.
