The Old Spanish Trail and Hispanic Communities

Photographs by
Richard W. Stoffle
Kathleen A. Van Vlack
Rebecca S. Toupal
Sean O’Meara
Jessica Medwied-Savage
These photographs serve as supplemental materials for the following reports:

- Ethnohistoric and Ethnographic Assessment of Contemporary Communities along the Old Spanish Trail (Stoffle et al. 2008)
  - Website: http://arizona.openrepository.com/arizona/handle/10150/270122

- This collection is intended to show readers places along the Old Spanish Trail. These photographs offer illustrations of the people, places, and resources.

- This presentation was designed for the University of Arizona Special Collections Repository. http://arizona.openrepository.com
The Old Spanish Trail

OLD SPANISH TRAIL
America's 15th National Historic Trail

- Old Spanish NHT
- Segment Under Study
Hispanic Communities that Participated in this Study
Abiquiu, New Mexico
Abiquiu, New Mexico
Abiquiu, New Mexico
Abiquiu, New Mexico
UofA Ethnographers at Abiquiu, New Mexico
Abiquiu, New Mexico and the Rio Chama
Gallina, New Mexico
Gallina, New Mexico
Cañon Largo, near Gallina, New Mexico
Cañon Largo, near Gallina, New Mexico
Gallina, New Mexico
Gallina, New Mexico
San Luis, Colorado
Monument Built in the San Luis Valley, Colorado to Commemorate the Northern Route of the Old Spanish Trail
UofA Ethnographers Documenting the Wagon Ruts along the Old Spanish Trail
Historic Church in San Luis, Colorado
San Luis, Colorado
San Luis, Colorado
Agua Mansa, California
The Past Location of Agua Mansa
Descendant of one of the Original Agua Mansa Community Members and a UofA Ethnographer
Agua Mansa Church Bell located in Riverside, California
Agua Mansa Cemetery, California
Agua Mansa Cemetery, California
San Gabriel, California
Father Juniper Serra, founder of San Gabriel Mission
San Gabriel Mission, California
San Gabriel Mission, California
San Gabriel, California
San Gabriel Mission, California
UoT A Ethnographer interviewing a Woman with Family Connections to San Gabriel, California and the Old Spanish Trail