Support Package for PCM Telemetry Systems

James L. Rieger, PE/PTBW
and
Harold F. Cummins
Telemetry Technology Branch, Code 6423
Naval Weapons Center, China Lake, California

ABSTRACT

An encryption support package--"ESP"--has been designed, built, and used by the Naval Weapons Center, China Lake, California for providing the interfaces required to interface the current KUTA series of data encryptor to existing digital telemetry systems. Use of the ESP module replaces an assortment of individual black boxes and reduces the possibilities of interaction between components within the telemetry system.