

EDITORIAL FOREWORD

On behalf of all of our members, I am proud to present Volume 37.2 of the Arizona Journal of International and Comparative Law. Although the disruption caused by COVID-19 has meant that we have not been able to work on this issue together like normal, every member stepped up to finish everything virtually. Thank you all so much!

This issue contains two articles: one an exploration of legal reform in Ghana and one exploring the criminal interrogation process in the Netherlands and how that could impact and improve interrogations in the United States and other adversarial legal systems. In addition, this issue features notes by Hannah Chute (Senior Managing Editor), Maura Hilser (Note Editor), and Brad Terrace (Senior Articles Editor).

Volume 37.2 is the third and final issue published by the 2019-2020 Editorial Board. It has been an honor to serve as the Editor-in-Chief for this publication cycle and I look forward to the Journal's continued success under the 2020-2021 Editorial Board.

Jordan Paul
Editor-in-Chief, 2019–2020

